MICHAEL RUBENSTEIN is an editorial and commercial photographer that lives and works in Greenpoint, Brooklyn. When not photographing seriously beautiful women for Inked Girls he enjoys long walks on the beach, a good steak with bourbon and his motorcycle...not necessarily in that order.

Sup Ninjas,

When we covered the Gathering of the Juggalos last year in INKED we got a glimpse into the dark carnival of Insane Clown Posse's circle and since we've been all types of fired up to try to walk a mile in their wicked clown shoes. So we put on the muthfuckin' face paint, tried to figure out the finer points of magnetism and chugged Faygo while we worked on Inked Girls.

Just clownin'. We put more work into this issue than any of the prior installments. Previously Inked Girls was wholly a submission-based magazine but to amp up the look and appeal, starting with this issue, we directed all of the shoots including pairing models we are fond of like Julie Becker and Femke Fatale with our favorite photographers. We think you'll agree that this is our sexiest Inked Girls ever.

Whoop! Whoop!
